

Penetration Testing as a Service (PTaaS)

Know that your security is keeping up with your risks.

Know Sooner, Act Faster, Spend Less

Staying on top of developing vulnerabilities in dynamic environments isn't possible with testing results from six months ago.

PTaaS is flexible, subscription-based penetration testing discounted 20-30% off of traditional testing that enables your offensive security to move at the speed of change in your environment and threat landscape.

Converge PTaaS connects the essential elements of deep, effective testing with budget advantages so you can test more often:

- Certified, creative testers with an adversarial mindset
- Direct access to testers and project managers
- Advanced security tools
